GitHub

Official GitHub Website 全球唯一正版GitHub网站: <https://github.com/>

GitHub is a cloud-based platform where you can store, share, and work together with others to write code. GitHub 是一种基于云的平台，可在其中存储、共享并与他人一起编写代码。

Storing your code in a "repository" on GitHub allows you to:

- Save your work to cloud.
- Showcase or share your work.
- Track and manage changes to your code over time.
- Let others review your code, and make suggestions to improve it.
- Collaborate on a shared project, without worrying that your changes will impact the work of your collaborators before you're ready to integrate them.

Collaborative working, one of GitHub's fundamental features, is made possible by the open-source software, Git, upon which GitHub is built.

Create your first REPO!

Steps:

1. Log in to GitHub
2. Click “+” → New repository
3. Name it: my-first-repo
4. Select: Add a README file
5. Click Create repository

Structure of a REPO

Sections of a GitHub Repo:

Let's Make a Change - Your first commit

Steps:

1. Open your README.md
2. Click  Edit
3. Add some text — “Hello, GitHub!”
4. Write a short commit message: Update README
5. Click Commit changes

Analogy:

Each commit = one save point in your time machine.

Fork and Pull Request

Scenario:

You want to help a friend improve their project.

Steps:

1. Go to your friend's repo
2. Click Fork → copy it to your account
3. Edit or add a file
4. Submit a Pull Request

Analogy:

Fork → Copying their notebook

Pull Request → Handing back your improved version for review
